

Resizing the Fields of the TLC Errors View

In addition to resizing the entire view, you can resize the individual fields of the TLC Errors view. Simply move the mouse to the appropriate boundary and, when the mouse pointer changes shape, click and drag. For changing the relative sizes of the columns of the error trace, you must go to the boundary between the Name and Value headings.

CLOSE